STATEMENT FROM OCT 27 TO NOV 26, 2018

4 OF 5

Time to Pay

If you make only the Minimum Payment each month, we estimate it will take 11 year(s) and 8 month(s) to fully repay the outstanding balance. Our estimate is based on the New Balance shown on this statement and your current credit card account terms.

New Service

Effective November 13, 2018, RBC is launching a service called Visa Account Updater (VAU) for personal and business RBC Visa cardholders (commercial RBC Visa cardholders are excluded). A similar service already exists for personal and business RBC Mastercard cardholders called Automatic Billing Updater (ABU).

These Credit Card Account Updater services automatically update a participating merchant with a cardholder's credit card number and expiry date for recurring payments the cardholder has set up with that merchant.

The Credit Card Account Updater services only apply when

- a cardholder has authorized a merchant(s) to charge automatic recurring payments to their credit card account,
- the merchant has enrolled in a Credit Card Account Updater service (VAU or ABU), and
- the cardholder's credit card number or expiry date changes.

This means that if you have set up a recurring payment with a participating merchant using your RBC credit card, we will automatically provide that merchant with your new credit card number and expiry date when we reissue your credit card so that your recurring payments are not disrupted.

You can opt out of these Credit Card Account Updater services if you don't want your new credit card number and expiry date to be automatically shared with participating merchants. Whether you opt out or make no changes to your account set up, you remain responsible for any recurring payments you have authorized merchants to charge to your credit card account.

For more details including how to opt-out of the Credit Card Account Updater services, visit rbc.com/cardsfaq or call us at 1-800-769-2512.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT POSSIBLE CANADA POST DISRUPTION:

If you receive your monthly statement by mail, it may be delayed. Sign up to receive your statements electronically through our online banking services to avoid any interruptions. You are still responsible for making a payment by your payment due date and keeping your account in good standing. You can conveniently make your payments at an ATM, through our telephone banking (1-800-ROYAL® 1-2), online banking services,
